POLICE INVESTIGATE HOMICIDE IN OLD TOWN

On Friday, December 4, 2015, at 10:20 p.m., the San Diego Police Department received a 911 call of an injured male on the sidewalk of 2200 San Diego Avenue.

When officers arrived, they located an unconscious 35-year-old Native American male on the sidewalk. The male had sustained major trauma to his upper body. Medics responded and performed life saving measures, but the male was pronounced deceased at the scene. Detectives learned the male resided nearby and the motive for the murder is unknown.

Homicide Detectives and Crime Scene Specialists are currently conducting their investigation and gathering evidence. The 2100-2200 block of San Diego Avenue will be closed for the next several hours.

The victim's identity is known, but will not be released pending further family notifications.

Anyone with information related to this incident is encouraged to call the San Diego Police Department's Homicide Unit or Crime Stoppers at 888-580-8477.
